

Lost the Map

Absofacto

All we got to go on is feel
You blend in, you're my heart's chameleon
Feeling around in a pitch black room
Till I find you, till I find you
I know it's you, 'cause you're unmistakable

And we lost the map
But it feels right
To keep walking this way

All we got to go on is feel
We're not dying up here like a bad comedian
I tapped into my lizard brain
And it told me, yeah it told me
To fall asleep on a rock with you and dream

And we lost the map
But it feels right
To keep walking this way

And all we got to go on is feel
The facts weren't facts, and now nothing's real at all
And all we got to go on is feel
We're high pitched, you're my heart's helium

And we lost the map
But it feels right
To keep walking this way
