

Rewind

Absofacto

Pitch black, dropping in a couple of stones
Ain't that funny just how deep it can go, and yet
Truth is, never hit the bottom at all
Don't miss, I love you but you already know
You know, you know

Another night in the city to waste away
And we can float right back to yesterday
We take our time, our time
I know that I showed a couple of tears to you
You said to close my eyes and count to two
We take our time, our time

Let's rewind
Let's rewind

Moonlight, just a couple minutes from home
Do ya sleep right living in the city alone? And yet
Try hard never to repeat the past
Not first, but maybe we can be the last

Another night in the city to waste away
And we can float right back to yesterday
We take our time, our time
I know that I showed a couple of tears to you
You said to close my eyes and count to two
We take our time, our time

Let's rewind
Let's rewind
Let's rewind
Let's rewind
