

Someone Else's Dream

Absofacto

Every time your eyes close, I feel my body disappear
I think I start fading, then I'm gone, gone, gone
I wake up in the deepest part of your mind and wonder why
I'm living in your world instead of mine
Yours instead of mine

Even if I die now
Quite exactly where I want to be
I, am I gonna stay here stuck in someone else's dream?
Maybe I'll find mine's a nightmare
But I don't even care
I just wanna live inside my own dream

I run for the horizon to see if I can shoot straight off again
Would it even wake you if I fall, fall, fall?
Throwing rocks at your golden sky
People fall so short, I have to laugh
Make a little echo in your mind

Even if I die now
Quite exactly where I want to be
I, am I gonna stay here stuck in someone else's dream?
Maybe I'll find mine's a nightmare
But I don't even care
I just wanna live inside my own dream

I just wanna live inside my own dream

Even if I die now
Quite exactly where I want to be
I, am I gonna stay here stuck in someone else's dream?
Maybe I'll find mine's a nightmare
But I don't even care
I just wanna live inside my own

Even if I die now
Quite exactly where I want to be
I, am I gonna stay here stuck in someone else's dream?
Maybe I'll find mine's a nightmare
But I don't even care
I just wanna live inside my own

Even if I die now
Even if I die now
Even if I die now
Even if I die now
