

Illusion Square

Abstract Essence

Closing eyes
You've got enough time (to)
Satisfy
Desire

You are a chump
Wasting own life
Killing your chance
To be number one

Escape every-day stereotype
Hide before outside world
Find a place where you can try
Be yourself without a fuckin' shame
Where is no duty and cold rain
The key is in your mind
It's not overcrowded by stuff
Nobody produces any row
Go through intellectual growth
No intolerance and violence
No terrorising fuckin' fools
You can make your own rules

Escape from boring reality
Hide behind the mirror of life
Never lost in city's hive
You'll have no suckin' depression
Live by edifying emotions
Never-ending free ride
Opened door to subconscious
Bridge across the stream of thought
Access free, go inside
Look forward to vacation
Pleasure park for all
Access free in everyone

Illusion square
What's going on in there

Imaging, challenging

Absence of all your pain
Pleasure runs through your veins
