Abstract

Just cover your eyes so you're not blinded by the lights

I know that the lights gettin' bright
And you ain't really used to heights
Promise you won't ever pay their price
Go and turn into somebody that I used to like Ain't it obvious? I'm made for this
Know you worry but I'm vetted and I'm yet to slip
She said, "I guess, but"

Just cover your eyes so you're not blinded by the lights

"I think it all got to you
Before I ever got with you
Wish I got the prototype before they made you version two"
Said, "Ain't it obvious? I've been like this
Just a kid with a dream that he gets to live
I wanna show you
That ain't shit changed 'cept the fact I get to hold you," ooh

Blinded

I would rather die than be all the way alive and be stuck on autopilot
Just cover your eyes so you won't ever be too

Blinded

I've been on the search steady looking for my purpose
I don't know where to find it
Just cover your eyes so you're not blinded by the lights

I know from the outside in
I can get a little reckless with
What I tend to spend my time exploring
The things I tend to make important
Try to keep you at the top of that list
No matter what, please remember what it is
'Cause if I ever get blinded I'll need remindin'
Of the man I was before the hits, yeah

Blinded

I would rather die than be all the way alive and be stuck on autopilot
Just cover your eyes so you won't ever be too

Blinded

I've been on the search steady looking for my purpose
I don't know where to find it
Just cover your eyes so you're not blinded by the lights

Ooh, ooh, ooh
Blinded by the light
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Blinded by the light
Ooh, ooh
