

Expectations

Abstract

Tell me what's takin' us so long to
To take a step forward if we both want to
Somebody lyin' or someone ain't tryin' hard enough
How could you think that I don't need you?
I don't call you for no reason
I think we need to do way less thinkin' and way more speakin', yeah

Kids get lost in thinkin' 'bout what they think love should be
And you can take your time, but you'll be fine if you believe
You get lost in thinkin' 'bout what you think love should be
But lucky thing for you, it just takes two if you believe

Why don't we ever show the way we feel, like how we're supposed to?
I just think we should get comfortable
Why don't we ever talk about what's real
And all we go through?
'Cause we'd expect us to live up to all the expectations
Darlin', tell me why you've been waitin'
We could meet all these expectations
Darlin', tell me why you've been waitin'
We could meet all these expectations

Tell me what's takin' us so long to Take a step forward if we both want to
Somebody lyin' or someone ain't tryin' hard enough
How could you think that I don't need you?
I don't call you for no reason
I think we need to do way less thinkin' and way more speakin', yeah

Kids get lost in thinkin' 'bout what they think love should be
And you can take your time, but you'll be fine if you believe
You get lost in thinkin' 'bout what you think love should be
But lucky thing for you, it just takes two if you believe

Oh, yeah
Darlin', tell me why you've been waitin'
We could meet all these expectations
Darlin', tell me why you've been waitin'
We could meet all these expectations

Why don't we ever show the way we feel, like how we're supposed to?
I just think we should get comfortable
Why don't we (Why don't we?) ever talk about what's real
And all we go through?
'Cause we'd expect us to live up to all the expectations, ooh
The expectations
Ooh, ooh
Expectations

Why don't we ever show the way we feel, like how we're supposed to?
I just think we should get comfortable
Why don't we ever talk about what's real
And all we go through?
'Cause we'd expect us to live up to all the expectations
Darlin', tell me why you've been waitin'
We could meet all these expectations
Darlin', tell me why you've been waitin'

We could meet all these expectations
