Abstract

Past few months hittin' snooze on the wake up
Homie in my ear tellin' me I gotta shape up
I know rock bottom got its perks, but I'm straight up
Not havin' a good time, I could use a change-up

Maybe down is where I had to go drownin'
Swimmin' but I know that I could float without you
Deep breaths, maybe that's the secret
Honestly, I needed you to let me go

Woke up on a high this mornin'
Finally feelin' free
I don't give a damn who's callin'
I've been gettin' back to me
Ridin' slow; I got the windows down, bass boomin'
No bad vibes to ruin me
Finally got the room to breathe, breathe, ohh

I've been so productive with my time, it's incredible
Once I get decodin' someone's lies off my schedule
Sorry, I forgot that I was me, reprehensible
Fact you ever let that man forget is unacceptable

Maybe down is where I had to go drownin'
Swimmin' but I know that I could float without you
Deep breaths, maybe that's the secret
Honestly, I needed you to let me go

Woke up on a high this mornin'
Finally feelin' free
I don't give a damn who's callin'
I've been gettin' back to me
Ridin' so I got the windows down, bass boomin'
No bad vibes to ruin me
Finally got the room to breathe, breathe, ohh
Woke up on a high this mornin'
Finally feelin' free
I don't give a damn who's callin'
I've been gettin' back to me
Ridin' slow; I got the windows down, bass boomin'
No bad vibes to ruin me
Finally got the room to breathe, breathe, ohh
