

Healing Interlude

Abstract

I know how you get when you're stressed
Walls up just to cope with the mess
The space between you and me, feels like a galaxy
You get so hard to read, there goes my anxiety
Tripping on the silence again
I can't wait for you to be you again
But I need to trust that there's more to your love
Cause when morning arrives I'll be feeling your touch
With your head on my chest we make sense of the mess
Cause we know we're only trying our best

Cause I'm still healing, you're still healing
We can't change the way we're feeling
You're everything that's on my mind
You're everything I hoped I'd find
Not perfect, you're worth it, every day I'm learning
To love you the way you deserve and I'm working
On putting on this baggage down
Cause I know how it weighs me down

Cause I'm still healing, you're still healing
We can't change the way we're feeling
You're everything that's on my mind
You're everything I hoped I'd find
Not perfect, I'm worth it, every day you're learning
To love me the way I deserve and we're working
On putting on this baggage down
Cause we know how it weighs us down
