

Girl, it used to be honest
Girl, it used to be real
Nowadays it's no comment
How the fuck that feel? (How the fuck that feel?)
Now you got what you wanted?
Do you want that still (Do you want that still?)
You can never go back on it, kinda swear I gotta pass on it
Ready for the real
You be high chasin', time wastin'
Don't know what's good for you
See your two faces, vibe fadin'
Your game ain't meant for two

Think you won that battle, I'ma win this war
Gon' fuel my fire, gon' change my world
Gon' see me on your TV (See me on your TV)
On the radio, too (On the radio, too)
You gon' be reminded of the man you used
But I would never keep you on my mind (My mind)
Been deservin' better for a long time (Long time)
New one comin' over and she too fine (Too fine)
'Cause she's been appreciatin' my mind (My mind)
I know I'm a diamond in the rough though (Rough though)
Life that I been livin' been a tough goal (Tough goal)
You know I'm the furthest from an asshole
But I can't wait to tell you that I told you so, so

Girl, it used to be honest
Girl, it used to be real
Nowadays it's no comment
How the fuck that feel? (How the fuck that feel?)
Now you got what you wanted?
Do you want that still (Do you want that still?)

Don't know what's good for you
See your two faces, vibe fadin'
Your game ain't meant for two

Tried to put me in the dirt
But I was grown from the earth
I'd do better under pressure
Known to put you on a stretcher if you ever leave me hurt
Here's a moment of silence
'Cause the truth gets violent
Heard you got your box-off messin' with The Rock
But you coulda had a diamond
But you know it's too late now
I know how to swim, can't drown
Way too many hold me down
Finally get to wear my crown
Thought you were my queen, no lie
Guess that I was way too blind
I'ma be the man I was
'Fore you try to kill my shine
