I Changed Too

Abstract

I can see it all in your eyes, baby
This the night of your life
Imma get you so high baby, hope you ain't scared of heights

That Benz sittin outside, baby, my Benz sittin outside
Your friends can't come with
I don't care
Look, there's two seats in my ride, bae
Write my name in the sky, 'ey

People say that I've changed
I'm okay with parting ways
Let's talk about all the days I was underrated, I was underpaid
You was in the back don't shake
Now you might have said that we made it
Now you come around, act fake

I'm supposed to act like we straight
I'm supposed to act like the things that I hear behind my back don't come in to play
You wanna act like you didn't see my stoppin still when I played

You wanna act like I didn't even try to pave the way
I'm on a major wave
Look, you changed, I changed too
You told everyone you knew that I was bad news

Look, you changed, I changed too
You told everyone you knew that I was bad news
And now I'm racked up, they can't catch up
Got my cash up, off that liquor I might act up

I'm racked up, they can't catch up
Got my cash up, off that liquor I might act up

Version that you knew of me expired
All your preconceptions, you can set 'em all on fire
And this time, I'm feelin' different for a while Radio toxicity I've been livin' with a smile

Got me down, I came back harder
Groovin with a suit of armor

I don't form no weaponry
I just leave that up to karma
Tell your sister, mother, father, I'm that revenge you deserve

I'm too petty when I levy my opponents with my words
Hit that, swerve on the plan
Turn me to a better man
Now I got someone about me she so proud to hold my hand

Coulda let you break me down, forget everything I found
Oh you changed, yeah I changed too, I'm just better now

Look, you changed, I changed too
You told everyone you knew that I was bad news

And now I'm racked up, they can't catch up
Got my cash up, off that liquor I might act up
I'm racked up, they can't catch up
Got my cash up, off that liquor I might act up
