JETLAG

Abstract

You used to get me high, now I'm jet lagged, I been
Falling through the sky with no jet pack baby
Sick of all your lies, you regret that crying
Telling all your girls you been missing me lately
I didn't forget
What you meant when you said
We too different 'cause I
Know the sky ain't the limit, it ain't the limit girl

One time that's shame on you, you was fucking up
Two times, put it on me, didn't do enough
But three times, girl I think you two-timing
Yeah I heard it all before, the world's smallest violin, ay
Let him in, hips lips upon your skin, hey
We were kids, so where do I begin?
You call me up asking how I been
Well I guess it all depends after I run through your friends, damn
This shit crazy, look at what you made me
We went from talking 'bout babies to talking 'bout how you played me
But if you wanna know things been great lately
I just guess that sucks for you 'cause this money ain't gon' change me

You used to get me high, now I'm jet lagged, I been
Falling through the sky with no jet pack baby
Sick of all your lies, you regret that crying
Telling all your girls you been missing me lately
I didn't forget
What you meant when you said
We too different 'cause I
Know the sky ain't the limit, it ain't the limit girl

Life been different, been a mile a minute
I been moving needles like the Beatles, I mean Lennon after '67
Bar I'm setting, product of a legend, know some didn't get it
I left 'em on read but I promise I still sent a message
New thing, changed the way I do things
Spent too much of my life caring 'bout what you think, what a waste
Flex it if you got it, rep it, they gon' feel me by my presence
Told the town I had the crown, chalked it up to adolescence
Wrote me off delusional, current state a brutal blow
Wide awake, I'm stacking stones, every brick I lay a quote
Turned it to a palace, I'll surround it with a moat
Just so I don't hear the regret from the hoes that chose to ghost
I see it all now, you got the short end of the stick
So let me ball out, let me show you what you missed

You used to get me high, now I'm jet lagged, I been
Falling through the sky with no jet pack baby
Sick of all your lies, you regret that crying
Telling all your girls you been missing me lately
I didn't forget
What you meant when you said
We too different 'cause I
Know the sky ain't the limit, it ain't the limit girl
