

You might think that you are at the bottom
 (Oh yeah, oh yeah, uhh)
 Judging by the writings on the wall
 (Kinda looks that way)
 If you need some good news then I got some
 (Listen up real quick)
 This is where you overcome it all
 The last chance motel

Yeah, uhh
 Hold up, wait a minute
 Let's re-evaluate somethin'
 Planet in my pivot, do not change the station
 Imprint printed, ain't nobody can't erase none
 All I do is give and go, it's okay to Take some times, I realize that
 Y'all ain't say jack, I'm the real life Pat
 I'ma spin this wheel, I'ma make this cash
 But it wasn't always like that if anybody asks
 I earned this
 This ain't the bottom like it once was
 That's where I came from, and it wasn't dumb luck
 The saying goes it ain't what it ain't
 But if the writing's on the wall then you can still buy paint, yeah

You might think that you are at the bottom
 (Oh yeah, oh yeah, uhh)
 Judging by the writings on the wall
 (Kinda looks that way)
 If you need some good news then I got some
 (Listen up real quick)
 This is where you overcome it all
 The last chance motel

We confronted the ace like my front porch (Yeah)
 Spent a week in the back, hit my lunch course (Woo)
 Pussy feel new, crowd consumed
 Got a suite for two, got me
 Thinking I would sign a lease with you
 Do whatever
 Livin' on my last chance, fed up (Yeah)
 Terracotta pots, point setter's own balcony (Ooh)
 Party at the last chance, calling up the Calgary (Uhh)
 Lil' kid livin' with a big boy salary, hey
 This where you over, come on
 I'm at the telly, you know what I'm on
 Bro don't know wallet's your favorite song
 Take a keycard, come on, I said

You might think that you are at the bottom
 (Oh yeah, oh yeah, uhh)
 Judging by the writings on the wall
 (Kinda looks that way)
 If you need some good news then I got some
 (Listen up real quick)
 This is where you overcome it all
 The last chance motel

Ooh, it's gonna be okay, baby
We've been through everything
And anything, both standing
The last chance motel
