

Light Em Up

Abstract

Alright

Spit that shit and you know that name
Spit that heat and you know that flame
Paint a perfect picture of my vision but y'all know that frame
I'm in it till the death of me; old girl couldn't get with me
Yeah, I'm gettin' bigger, got these lame ass rappers stressin' me
I'm goin' in like you ain't seen
Ace this page, you know the team
Mowin' down these flows 'cause I guess my life is but a dream
Got a blunt earned back to light up
And these girls just tend to like us
'Cause we cruisin' to the top and they only want a ride up
Got a flow for every song, gotta for every
We do this shit like Burger King, we get it how we want
Got a dot on the heads of these lames
Lookin' a radian team
Gotta think for the A's like they Canadian
'Cause I hit the ground runnin' (runnin')
Did that shit like nothin' (nothin')
And yeah, I hate who you were
But I wouldn't be here if you wasn't
Used to do this just to try to get attention from a girl
Now I do this shit and I got the attention of the world

My songs know what you did in the dark
So light 'em—

My songs know, my songs know
You're just mad at the truth they show
My songs know, my songs know
What you did in the dark, I just can't let go
So light it up, up, up, up, up
Light it up, up, up, up
Light it up, up, up, up
Light it up, up, up, up

Destined since day one; questioned since day two Winnin' since, well—currently, so yesterday is "fuck you"
I got bars of all equation; fans up all across the nation
Moment travels 'round the globe, still I ain't had vacation
'Cause I choose this over everything; music over wedding rings
Music over doin' what I guess you'd call the "normal things"
Get it and go then we out with the flow
Hittin' it crazy, we lettin' 'em know
I'm a thousand credible, wildly versatile
Ever offended you, best take it personal
Way too many songs 'bout what you did in the dark
If I put 'em in a pile, know that you would be the one to spark
Light 'em up, up, up
Burn the stories till their ash
But what lies beneath the stories is the truth inside your past
But I'm no longer drinkin' (drinkin')
Y'all been how we livin' (livin')
Live flow, be on Pluto
Fuck who said that sky's the limit
Tryna live a life that generations can be proud of

That's A Life to Live By, get ready for the album
