

Love Me

Abstract

Welcome back, the journey to Moon Five Two continues...

Ya, 2019 wanted me dead
My own songs were just me talking me off the ledge
Anxiety taking every thought to the very edge
Imagining the worst cause the worst was so fresh in my head
Team looking for me to lead I couldn't own my role
Cause I was busy leading myself down every rabbit hole
Tripping like I'm Alice, a chalice to numb the pain
And when everything was sunny I played god with the rain
Must accept the good or I know that I'll lose it all
But when you get this high up you start expecting the fall
Cause when you get this high up you start expecting the fall

Can you love me, even when I lose my way
Can you love me, even when the sky's go grey
Can you love me, when it's hard to love myself
Can you love me, when all I need is love from you, nobody else

Can you love me when I'm ugly or do I have to facade
Only human I been ruined I'm trying to work with the odds
Got some people that I lost now I'm touring around the globe
Tell me why I always feel like I'm catching up to my goals
If I'm breathing I can reach 'em imagination is bold
Spoke a lot into existence I'm midis to who I told
Dreams I spoke about are now plated 24k
300 off a dream they said I'd never see the day
My soul was never traded I'm never losing myself
So add that to the equation when you're discussing my wealth
It was never only me, I'm aware that it took a team
A couple million who relate to the man that I aim to be
A couple million who relate to the man that I aim to be
A Team Worldwide

Can you love me, even when I lose my way
Can you love me, even when the sky's go grey
Can you love me, when it's hard to love myself
Can you love me, when all I need is love from you, nobody else

Can you love me, even when I lose my way
Can you love me, even when the sky's go grey
Can you love me, when it's hard to love myself
Can you love me, when all I need is love from you, nobody else
