

Move

Abstract

I'm tired of being afraid
When nothing's gunna change
And it's more than just a stupid fling Yeah, he's got a hold on me

Singin' why did you do this Why put me through this
All I wanna do

I'm tired of playin'
You love me, and hate it
All I wanna do is move
All I wanna do is move

Another night with you again, hands shaking tryna move the pen, killing me on you I depend, no matter what I do you always in my head
You took over my life, got me living dreams that keep me up at night, are you even aware of my sacrifice, took away any hope o f a normal life, you laugh cause you know I never wanted that, you took over my future to help with my past, is that a deal wi th the devil, or is that a deal with a God, am I just at war wi th the odds or am I about to break even, you know that I would lieing to you to say I never think about leaving, somehow I kee p on believing, bigger reasons that you keep me breathing, I kn ow there's people who need it, I just hope that it's right that I lead em, I hope you got something bigger planned, cause late ly I'm questioning everything, but I know that we came too far to go back, just hope that you don't stab me in the back

Singin' why did you do this
Why put me through this
All I wanna do

I'm tired of playin'
You love me, and hate it
All I wanna do is move
All I wanna do is move
