

My Stop

Abstract

I know you're only twenty-two and you're selfish
So much you wanna do, you can't help it
Thought that I could ride through your highs and your lows
Thought I'd get to witness the places you'll go

But this is my stop
La-da, da-da-da
This is my stop
La-da, da-da
This is my stop
La-da, da-da-da
This is my stop
La-da, da-da-da

Used to be the sun of my rainy days
We were livin' under clouds 'til we ran away
Built a home together, we were livin' out a dream
I was planning on forever, I thought you were made for me
Guess forever doesn't last; who I loved is in the past
When I look into your eyes, someone different's lookin' back
RIP to the person that I once loved
New you grabbed the shovel, got the grave dug
You say everything is temporary, nothing ever lasts
Just a story that you tell yourself, chained to your past
Wish that I could ride this train with you, I've run out of track
Maybe we'll be back

But this is my stop
La-da, da-da-da
This is my stop
La-da, da-da
This is my stop
La-da, da-da-da
This is my stop
La-da, da-da-da

I need to tell you that I almost bought you a ring when I was away
Always thinking of you, but the thought of stability made you a runaway
Barely answered your phone
Text me "I miss you," but you ain't alone
Taking somebody else into our home
Drive him around in the car that I own
I guess that people ain't people to you
I guess that everyone's somethin' to use
I guess that you got the darkest of hearts
But I only looked at the goodness in you
Sorry for loving you way more than you
Now I know you hate yourself more than I do
No one can fix what is broken inside
Keep stackin' mistakes and drown 'em in lies

'Cause I tried to love you
But you don't love yourself
Thought I could ride this train with you

But I know you're only twenty-two and you're selfish
So much you wanna do, you can't help it

Thought that I could ride through your highs and your lows
Thought I'd get to witness the places you'll go

But this is my stop (My stop)
La-da, da-da-da
This is my stop (My stop)
La-da, da-da
This is my stop (My stop, my stop, my stop)
La-da, da-da-da
This is my stop (My stop, my stop, my stop)
La-da, da-da-da
