

Pourin' coffee in the mornin', I was barely on it Scroll to login, only plottin' on a simple pop-in Love I've gotten should negate the hate way I've been rockin'
There's always one who starts projectin', steady keyboard knockin'
Ugh, like are they good back home?
Does cynicism live within a crack in your dome?
Do you hate to see somebody with a purpose in life?
Like, did no one ever teach you about bein' polite? Ugh

Ain't nobody bringin' me down, ain't nobody bringin' me down today
I keep remindin' myself
Ain't nobody bringin' me down, ain't nobody bringin' me down today
Don't know how much it help
Ain't nobody bringin' me down, ain't nobody bringin' me down today
I keep remindin' myself
Ain't nobody bringin' me down, bringin' me down, bringin' me down, bringin'
me down today

I let it go, let the news drown my petty problems
I'm too ready to get levied by collective knowledge
Never harbingers of hope, more like gloomy prophets
They proceed to tell me every fruit of labor's rotten
Doomsday, just another Tuesday
Another breakin' news atrocity to keep on replay
Got 24 hours and they gotta keep it filled
Eyes glued to every situation, that could get you killed
Leverage self-preservation, get the nation hypnotized
Tell me everything I'm doin', prove that I ain't livin' right
If you aren't with the crowd, don't you speak too loud
'Cause the arrogance is thick and it's way too proud
They 180 on the daily for whatever's gettin' clicks
A 360 of the planet, 'cept there's so much that we miss
Share the darkness just to harness every fear that might exist
Here's a fix, shut it off and sing along like this

Ain't nobody bringin' me down, ain't nobody bringin' me down today
I keep remindin' myself
Ain't nobody bringin' me down, ain't nobody bringin' me down today
Don't know how much it help
Ain't nobody bringin' me down, ain't nobody bringin' me down today
I keep remindin' myself
Ain't nobody bringin' me down, bringin' me down, bringin' me down, bringin'
me down today

I'm not sayin' cut your ties from the modern life and times
I'm just sayin' you should focus on the people you should mind
Everyone who holds you close, all those who you'd like to toast
When the world is feelin' lesser, that's when you should give the most Know a smile is a cure, know an act could make a day
That's from opening a door to a compliment you trade
Anyway, should be somethin' I don't even need to say
Best we look out for each other, that's the way you make a change

Said that's the way you make a change
Come on, we know what you really wanna say
