

Part Time Love

Abstract

Nothing at, nothing at, nothing at
Nothing at all
Nothing at, nothing at, nothing at
Nothing at all

I don't want no part-time love (Love)
I'ma need the whole thing (Whole thing)
Or nothing at all
I don't want no part-time love (Love)
I'ma need the whole thing (Whole thing)
Or nothing at all

Livin' in a generation
Where most want more than they give
No collaboration
They don't wanna go and spend too much
On another love lost to a word called lust, it's Honestly a goddamn shame how they can't maintain
Through the wind, fire, rain
Everybody stay fallin' for a honeymoon phase
'Til the flaws show and turn into a taste they hate
Tell me, what are we doing?
We're all human, show me someone who's perfect
I know the truth is hard to swallow but it's all a facade
Know that you ain't heaven-sent and ain't nobody a god
Don't you know you're throwing stones from a glass house? (Careful)
Who still has self-awareness? (Handful)
How many time fate been erased by a hypocrite?
Everybody human; how many can live with it?

I don't want no part-time love (Love)
I'ma need the whole thing (Whole thing)
Or nothing at all
I don't want no part-time love (Love)
I'ma need the whole thing (Whole thing)
Or nothing at all

I don't want no half investments
Been there, done that, hit the exit
Can't subject me to no checklist
Anything less I'll label reckless (Reckless)
Beg your pardon, used to be a bargain
Now my self worth higher than your target
I go all in every single time
That's my heart, my mind in every rhyme
Feelin' like the last when thinkin' like this
If you disagree, hold up your lighters
I'm aware of how hard that this life gets
Last thing that we need to add is more stress
Deposit with you withdrawin' love will be beautiful
'Cause we don't want no

'Cause we don't want no part-time love
I'ma need the whole thing (Whole thing)
Or nothing at all
I don't want no part-time love
You know that I need the whole thing

You know that I need the whole thing

I don't want no part-time love (Love)
I'ma need the whole thing (Whole thing)
Or nothing at all
I don't want no part-time love (Love)
I'ma need the whole thing (Whole thing)
Or nothing at all

Nothing at, nothing at, nothing at
Nothing at all
Nothing at, nothing at, nothing at
Nothing at all
