

Sometimes I Have To Die

Abstract

Did it again, I know
I tend to lose control
Gambled again on love
That I know I could never own
What's it gonna take to stop me?
Just another carbon copy
That I know will let me down
Place the gloves for one more round

Trust the cycle that I go through
Hello pain, it's nice to know you
Just so I can feel alive
Sometimes I have to do

I know it was psycho pretending you were
The answer to my prayers, I knew that you weren't
The one I deserved, I swear this time I'll change the high
That I chase 'cause I waste time, but sometimes I have to die

Ooh-whoa, ooh-whoa, ooh-whoa-oh
Sometimes I have to die
Ooh-whoa, ooh-whoa, ooh-whoa-oh
Sometimes I have to die
Ooh-whoa, ooh-whoa, ooh-whoa-oh
Sometimes I have to die
Ooh-whoa, ooh-whoa, ooh-whoa-oh
Sometimes I have to die

Push my heart straight to the edge
Leave me broken, leave me dead
I'll ignore all of my friends
All the warnings that they left
I know I can't stop my hunger
For the things that pull me under
I love rising from the ashes
So let me burn in all your madness

Trust the cycle that I go through
Hello pain, it's nice to know you
Just so I can feel alive
Sometimes I have to die

I know it was psycho pretending you were
The answer to my prayers, I knew that you weren't
The one I deserved, I swear this time I'll change the high
That I chase 'cause I waste time, but sometimes I have to die
