

Talk

Abstract

They used to talk
They used to talk

They used to talk down on me
Now they down with me (oh, you down?)
Never showed love, now it's "You the man, homie" (I'm the man!)
When I'm home, I swear everything feel different (shit feel different)
Where were you when nobody saw my visions? (saw my visions!)
Runnin' through my high school's halls, wish that they could talk
I don't ever like like y'all's, I ain't gotta pause
Said I wouldn't, now I do
Small town kid, got global shoes
Fuck with me? I fuck with you
If not, don't get shit confused

I gave some of y'all the blueprints, I ain't seen you pay me any dues since
I'ma global threat, I'ma nuisance
Couple screws loose, but no loose ends
Got it Tide up like the pods though (don't eat that)
Fast life, but I ride slow
Heard 'em talk down, I don't mind though
I'ma cruise past with my eyes closed
Tunnel vision to the competition
I'm in poll position with the moves, yeah
I'm about to do it so different they gon' make amendments to the rules, yeah
After this probably nobody anybody can compare me to Heard a couple say they knew me back when Sorry, who the hell are you?

They used to talk down on me
Now they down with me (oh, you down?)
Never showed love, now it's "You the man, homie" (I'm the man!)
When I'm home, I swear everything feel different (shit feel different)
Where were you when nobody saw my visions? (saw my visions!)

Treat the album like a movie, treat the movie like I based it on a book
Y'all treat albums like a mixtape, and you wonder why it's overlooked
All your vocals overcooked, yeah
This is easy as it looks, yeah
Everybody got this flow, yeah
Is it fuckin' played out? Yeah
I'm just so sick of you soundin' the same
Back in the day they would take out the lames
Now it's just, "Look at me! I got a chain!"
Now it's just, "Look at me! I make it rain!"
Sorry, I don't mean to hate, just get the fuck out my face
Don't talk to me
I just work harder than you to be able to say...

They used to talk down on me
Now they down with me (oh, you down?)

Never showed love, now it's "You the man, homie" (I'm the man!)
When I'm home, I swear everything feel different (shit feel different)
Where were you when nobody saw my visions? (saw my visions!)
Runnin' through my high school's halls, wish that they could talk
I don't ever like like y'all, I ain't gotta pause

Hahaha, ah
Took me like twenty minutes
No one's ready
Just give me time
It's on the way
Patience
