The End

Abstract

I'm sorry it's the end
Tried too many times but it's still never makin' sense
Broke me more than once and that's been hard to comprehend
Forgave you in the past, now I don't want to make amends, no
No friends, no, no
I'm sorry it's the end
Tried too many times but it's still never makin' sense
Broke me more than once and that's been hard to comprehend
Forgave you in the past, now I don't want to make amends, no
No friends, no, no
This time it is the end

Done repeating, want you back for no good reason
You been treatin' me like shit
I fell in love with you deceivin'
All your flaws, no more grievin'
I've been puttin' back the pieces
Gave you everything I had and you just took that all for weakness
Thought I lost
Fooled me from the start, I was blinded by our passion
Target at my heart 'til you split it into fractions
Thought it was my fault, every way I could imagine
Should've known it ain't tragic

You know how to make me go fuckin' crazy
Gone through hell, now I know it won't phase me, yeah
Missin' how we started things lately
Soon enough the memory's fading

I'm sorry it's the end
Tried too many times but it's still never makin' sense
Broke me more than once and that's been hard to comprehend
Forgave you in the past, now I don't want to make amends, no
No friends, no, no
I'm sorry it's the end
Tried too many times but it's still never makin' sense
Broke me more than once and that's been hard to comprehend
Forgave you in the past, now I don't want to make amends, no
No friends, no, no
This time it is the end

Last dance, I'm done givin' second chances
Test me just to see how far I let shit slide
Really thought you were for real, every time you lied
So I mean this shit for real when I say goodbye
You think that love is when you get your way
When nothing else matters except what you say
Use everybody like they were a pawn in your miserable life that you play lik e a game
One day I know that you're gonna wake up
When nobody's left to go fill up your cup
You'll get to wishin' that they didn't know, that you got it all except for a soul

You know how to make me go fuckin' crazy
Gone through hell, now I know that it won't phase me
Prayers up for your next man, she's a mess, man

If I couldn't save you, I know that you're next can't

I'm sorry it's the end
Tried too many times but it's still never makin' sense
Broke me more than once and that's been hard to comprehend
Forgave you in the past, now I don't want to make amends, no (No, no)
No friends, no, no (No, no)
I'm sorry it's the end (Ooh)
Tried too many times but it's still never makin' sense (Ooh)
Broke me more than once and that's been hard to comprehend
Forgave you in the past, now I don't want to make amends, no (No, no)
No friends, no, no (No, no)
This time it is the end
