

Vampire

Abstract

I was afraid to love you
Something had my shook from the get go
Now I lose sleep running from you
How'd you make it so hard to let go

Bonded by the trauma, twisted by the lies
Left me for another, can't say I'm surprised
Drain me till there's nothing, then you on the next
Sinking in your fangs into someone else's neck

If I could go back to that god damn day
I don't know if I would tell me to run
'Cause love had me blind to your true design
Even the devil knows how to have fun
If my heart goes cold and my soul goes black
Then you win, that's what you wanted to do
'Cause you suck the love out of everyone
Try to make them just like you

You're a vampire
See the blood lust in your eyes
You're a vampire
I know this ain't your first time
'Cause you suck the love out of everyone
Try to make them just like you
You're a vampire (vampire)

I shoulda ran for my life
Didn't know this was a game to you
That ain't a kiss, it's a bite
Sinking in your fangs is a high for you

I wasn't looking for love, you were looking for me
You took me into the woods, trapping me on the beach
Convinced me that you were her, I mean the girl of my dreams
But baby I should of known it's never good as it's seems

If I could go back to that god damn day
I don't know if I would tell me to run
'Cause love had me blind to your true design
Even the devil knows how to have fun
If my heart goes cold and my soul goes black
Then you win, that's what you wanted to do
'Cause you suck the love out of everyone
Try to make them just like you

Finally found someone who can heal my scars and it feels like love, ya

Know I could of gone cold, coulda froze my soul but my heart's still whole and I'm

Holding on to who I am, cause who I love deserves that man
You did your worst, I broke your curse, but now I'm free

If my heart goes cold and my soul goes black
Then you win, that's what you wanted to do
'Cause you suck the love out of everyone
Try to make them just like you

You're a vampire
