

Dark and light
Dark and light
Dark and light
Dark and light

They used to believe that the sun revolved around us
The center of everything
That's just so human of us
How could we be anything less than everything?
When all you know is not enough
You fill the hole with the good enough

Dark and light
Dark and light
Dark and light
Dark and light

If ego's the Devil
Then God is within
My church has no ceilings
It don't care where I been
It don't bring me to my knees
It don't make me beg
It knows that I'm human, a pause in the chaos
A miracle lived

Dark and light
Dark and light
Dark and light
Dark and light
Dark and light
Dark and light
Dark and light
Dark and light

It's freeing to know
It's all up to me
Who I choose to be
What I choose to leave
This miracle we get to witness
This pause in the chaos, it's love
This speck in a galaxy
Dot in a sunbeam
It's more than enough
You gotta realize your worth
You're meant to be on this earth
Think about how many miracles happened to lead to your birth
Don't put a lock on your mind
Life is yet to be defined
Beauty in the unknown
For a human, this is home
Meant to question, meant to explore, meant to create
Meant to love, meant to feel, meant to find a bit of escape
Make some beauty 'fore you expire
Transcend when you inspire
Time doesn't knock at your door
It allows you to enter
