Outta sight outta mind, there's just too much on the line, not enough time in the day and not enough of its mine, bout to get that level that I been searching to find, told you how I been f eelin while the world is thinking I'm fine, cause this fame isn 't money and this life isn't free, I know how I been feeling, a nd what I'm feeling ain't me, I'm more concerned with my come u p than really feeling complete, I see less of reality more I'm living my dreams, I ain't got time for you, I barely got time f or me, I'm out here making the moves being who my family need, promise you when I get it that I'll be here if you need, but I know you're losing hope in who you want me to be, I got a hole in my heart, i got a glitch in my soul, Got a couple screws loo se inside this mind that I own, but I'm here holding the gun, I rewired my soul, and I'm the one with the Philips head twistin left with it so

X's and O's
Tell me where did they go Your hugs, your kisses, baby I gotta know

X's and O's
Tell me where did they go
I'm fuckin' missin' these X's and O's
