

Cycle

Absurd Minds

It broke in two parts,
once one, now two.
We fell into this world.
We separated each other to feel the notion.
It begs the question, never before.
'Cause there was nothing else to see.
'Cause there was nothing else to see.
Once one, now two - we were able to do this.
Now we could start the search.

So we were getting lost in life.
If you seek for me - four doors divide the five.

The eye can't catch, the hand can't feel, the nose can't smell, the ear can't hear, the tongue can't taste.
Four doors divide the five.
The eye can't catch, the hand can't feel, the nose can't smell, the ear can't hear, the tongue can't taste.
Four doors divide the five.

To find each other was in the interaction of all senses,
not one alone can do this.
I let them waste away by looking only for me.
Four doors divide the five and another one keeps them all closed.
I gave you the key before we start the search.
Before we start the search.

I looked at the inside. I looked at the outside. I looked at the inside.
The outside faded away.

The eye can't catch, the hand can't feel, the nose can't smell, the ear can't hear, the tongue can't taste.
Four doors divide the five.
The eye can't catch, the hand can't feel, the nose can't smell, the ear can't hear, the tongue can't taste.
Four doors divide the five.

Blind until the day of judgement - now it's getting clearer.
I can see you, you hold a key in your hand. (You hold the key in your hand.)
And while you unlock the doors one by one, I know.
And while you unlock the doors one by one, I know that I'll be coming home.

Now the eye can catch, the hand can feel, the nose can smell, the ear can hear, the tongue can taste.
No door divides the five.
The eye can catch, the hand can feel, the nose can smell, the ear can hear, the tongue can taste.
No door divides the five.

I love you, love you, love.
I love you, love you, love.
