

Under The Sign Of The Pentagram

Abused Majesty

In darkness I found myself
Only here my soul can be free
I spat in the face of your god,
And I cursed his name a hundred times
I became a wolf to snatch the limbs of Christ...
Blasphemer, that pisses on your holy graves...
Dragon, that burns your temples and rapes
Daughters of those, who dare meet me in battle...
Come join my crusade
And the Christian fools we shall destroy
We shall burn the heavens with the flames
Of our hearts!
For when we are gathered
Nothing can stop us!
In the name of the Antichrist!
We shall impale the priests
All nuns shall swallow our seeds
And the pope's blood shall cover my unholy sword's blade!
Under the sign of the Pentagram we march!
