

How Can I Truly Say?

Acappella

How can I truly show that I love you?
How can I truly say how I need you?
How can I really share what I'm feeling?
Can I reveal my heart as I'm kneeling?

How can I ever learn your compassion?
Covered and clothed with Christ for my fashion
Turning aside I feel godly sorrow
You confidently secure my tomorrow

How can I truly show that I love you?
How can I truly say how I need you?
How can I really share what I'm feeling?
How can I truly say?
