

Something to Hold On To

Acappella

Something, something Something so good

You give me something to hold on to (You've given me) Something to hold on to You've given me something to hold on to That's s o good (so good - it's good)

Primeira estrofe: No more drifting down the road Heading only w herever it goes With no clue with no prayer Only You can carry me there To the place that is new To the place that is true

You give me something to hold on to (You've given me) Something to hold on to You've given me something to hold on to That's s o good (so good - it's good)

Segunda estrofe: No more clinging to my past No depending on th ings that won't last Wasting hours wasting years Only You can d ry all the tears Now You're guiding me through What I'm finding in You

You give me something to hold on to (You've given me) Something
to hold on to You've given me something to hold on to That's s o good (so good - it's good)

Something so special and something so good Something to hold on to Something so special and something so true I'm grateful Lor d I've found it in You

You give me something to hold on to (You've given me) Something to hold on to You've given me something to hold on to That's s o good (so good - it's good)

You've given me something Something so good So good - it's good So good - it's good
