

Not My Problem

Accept

Dug your hole, don't bear your soul and sin all over me
Made your bed now lay your head, you don't get no sympathy
Hear that sound it's coming down, the hammer's got to fall
Hit the lights you're in the sights, up against the wall

Don't blame your misfortunes on me
You've done this all on your own
So many others are too blind to see
Well, let me throw the first stone

Not my problem
Not my problem
It's not my problem
Not my problem
Keep it to yourself

Realize how many times I've bailed you out before
I bought your charms with open arms, now I close the door
You've done the crime now do the time, go bitch to someone else
Take a stand and play your hand, you've brought this on yourself

Don't blame your misfortunes on me
You've done this all on your own
So many others are too blind to see
Well, let me throw the first stone

You're not my problem
Not my problem
It's not my problem
Not my problem
Keep it to yourself

Don't blame your misfortunes on me
You've done this all on your own
So many others are too blind to see
Well, let me throw the first stone

Not my problem
Not my problem
It's not my problem
Not my problem
Keep it to yourself
