

Bend the Light

Acceptance

Your eyes are closed
And it feels like I'm destined
I'm destined just to bleed
But I'll bring you near, I'll hold you close
I'll take you home, ooh
I'll take you home
Won't be long any longer than you have to give

I want to bend the light
I can bring you back
I could make it right for us
I want to bend the light
I could bring you back
Will you stay with me tonight?

Am I here alone?
And I feels like I'm falling
I can't hang on for long

But I'll bring you near
I'll hold you close
I'll take you home, ooh
I'll take you home
Won't be long any longer than you have to give

I want to bend the light
I can bring you back
I could make it right for us
I want to bend the light
I could bring you back
Will you stay with me tonight?

And I wanna feel alive
I wanna feel alive

It's so hard to pretend
When you feel like I feel
It's so hard to pretend
When you see like I see

Won't be longer, won't be long
Won't be longer
Any longer than you have to give

I want to bend the light
I can bring you back
I could make it right for us
I want to bend the light
I could bring you back
Will you stay with me tonight?

It's so hard to pretend
When you feel like I feel
It's so hard to pretend

It's so hard to pretend
