

Dark Age

Acceptance

It's dangerous to be out here at night
Better start thinking this over
She says the two of us won't make it through the night
What do you think about that?

She says it's over, I don't think you know her
Don't try to control her, I don't think you know her
It hit like lightning, she brought the thunder

She is set to blow
She's set to automatic
Oh it built so slow
But there's no time to panic
And she's a mystery
From a dark age, white light set free

I don't know what you heard, but it's all going down
At the corner of this last century
I think it's safe to say, I'm way out of my league this time
You gotta rescue me, you gotta rescue me

She says it's over, I don't think you know her
Don't try to control her, I don't think you know her
It hit like lightning, she brought the thunder

She is set to blow
She's set to automatic
Oh it built so slow
It's not time to panic
Cause she's a mystery
From a dark age, white light set free

Welcome to my honest eyes
I can't believe we failed her
Welcome to my honest eyes
You're my only failure
You're my only failure
You're my only

She is set to blow
She's set to automatic
Oh it built so slow
But there's no time to panic

She is set to blow
She's set to automatic, she's set to automatic
Oh it built so slow
But there's no time to panic, there's no time to panic
She's a mystery, she's a mystery
