

Obscurity

ACCVSED

Why are we awake
When all that we hope for is sleep?
What are we searching for in the fog
When there is nothing to see? Nothing to see!

You're beautiful just staring at me
But you've got nothing to say that I want to hear, I don't want to hear

I don't wanna know who you are
I don't wanna know why I'm here
No space to move on in sadness I roam
Thousands in this room, yet I feel alone

Blindly strolling through
Would you take this leash and lead me?
I will follow you
So take your hope and feed me

Will you keep going until your legs are sore?
Until we make something from nothing
What are we? What are we searching for?
Do you know where we're going?!

And if you keep going til your legs are sore
We will make something from nothing

Blindly strolling through
Would you take this leash and lead me?
I will follow you
So take your hope and feed me

No space to move on
In sadness I roam, together alone
Vibrations move our body's and numb our minds
Give me something real before we die
