

Obsidian

ACCVSED

Change is ineluctable
I can feel
The shifting shades
Absorbing black
Take everything that I ever had

The fading silhouettes
Of all that I left

Breaking down
Piece by piece I'll take it back
I'll break the walls
Imprisoned me in my regrets

Feel the ground shake
I don't what I'm running from
Reach beyond the sun to meet the light
My eyes turn to obsidian
Obsidian

Remained in doubt for the longest time
Longing for anybody else
Failed to realize
True change only lies within myself

Piece by piece I'll take it back
I'll break the walls
Imprisoned me in my regrets

"Are we dreaming?"
No
It's fucking real
The gloom will lift forever
It's fucking real

Feel the ground shake
I don't what I'm running from
Reach beyond the sun to meet the light
My eyes turn to obsidian
Obsidian

White flags to surrender the dark
Black stains that hardened my heart
Time ahead is a gift
Watch the narrative shift
