

Constantly Cute

Ace Frehley

Girl, you stop traffic
All the boys, they stand in line
Baby, it's kinda tragic
All the ladies, they lose their minds

Attractive and coy, but you're not aware
You're not of this earth, think you're an angel
Your charming allure, you're like the girl next door
Your magic ensues all the others
You are, you are

You're constantly cute, you look like a dream
All guys in pursuit, there's nowhere to run
You're constantly cute, always makin' the scene
You look absolute, 'cause you're constantly, constantly cute
Constantly cute

The bee's always surround you
You're a flower that transcends time
You're sweet just like honey
You're so delicious, my taste buds smile

Attractive and coy, but you're not aware
You're not of this earth, think you're an angel
Your charming allure, you're like the girl next door
Your magic ensues all the others
You are, you are

You're constantly cute, you look like a dream
All guys in pursuit, there's nowhere to run
You're constantly cute, always makin' the scene
You look absolute, 'cause you're constantly, constantly

Girl, you're so sexy
I can't explain the feelings in my mind

Your charming allure, you're like the girl next door
Your magic ensues all the others

You're constantly cute, you look like a dream
All guys in pursuit, there's nowhere to run
You're constantly cute, always makin' the scene
You look absolute, 'cause you're constantly, constantly
Constantly cute, you look like a dream
All guys in pursuit, there's nowhere to run
You're constantly cute, always makin' the scene
You look absolute, 'cause you're constantly, constantly cute
