Ace Hood

This here is a hero's journey. A journey of a hero. We gon' rise or we gon' fall. Fly or die.

Uh, I set my goals and I get active
Basic laws of attraction got me preaching what I practice
Got me focused no distractions (Oof)
Had to manage my reactions, basic laws of attraction
Hella cautious hella savage, uh
Navigating through this madness, keep on flowing, can't be stagnant
High achiever, he not average
With due respect it ain't no challenge plus I used to pick up beef before my salad let that marinate (Woo)
Before I knock your head off I'd rather meditate (Woo)
It's in those moments when my conscious seem to separate (Woo)
Even though I'm rich I still can flip and shit go section 8 (Ye, ye)
Speaking on my people that I cherish I go planet ape
I know that love is gon' prevail when they disperse the hate, I'm holding sp ace
Rolling up my sleeves you know I keep a ace, we awake
Everything I touch you know it land it's on my real estate

Chop it up so long it's time to liberate
Man of lesser words it's through my actions we gon' demonstrate
I've been saving more then I'm spending watch it accumulate
Praying for my brothers who struggle behind them prison gates 911 Porsche it got me [?] on that interstate
I know I'm covered up by God's grace
Painting all these pictures so vividly how I illustrate, bless, uh
Come peep my moves, watch me demonstrate, y'all wait

Speaking from my soul
I done cried so many days that I could fill a bowl
I was numb so many nights and then he lost control
So much trauma you can't dress that in designer clothes (Naw)
How I lose it, it's confusing, it's been proven ain't it (Right)
Sell your soul for that lil' gold and now your word tainted (Yuh)
I've been a victim of it, rising like the second coming (Woo)
Feeling like I'm being punished tryna reach abundance
All these lessons I confronted you can barely stomach (Trust)
Finally standing on my ten 'cause all my life been running
No more fear (No), I shine my light like I belong here, aw yeah, it's home h ere

Chop it up so long it's time to liberate
Man of lesser words it's through my actions we gon' demonstrate
I've been saving more then I'm spending watch it accumulate
Praying for my brothers who struggle behind them prison gates
