

Lovers

Ace Hood

Shit so deep and I go deep whenever we get under covers
Lovers, lovers!

Lovers
Forever love
Dig up the dirt and do the work, we gettin' better for each other
Forever love
This shit so deep and I go deep whenever we get under covers
Forever love
Know you my rider and I need you like this air I breathe
I get them butterflies sometimes, feel like I'm seventeen
I wrote a poem for you, baby, and that letter reads

Rubies are red, violets ultrablue
I can't see no future moves without no me and you
And we can't see from equal views if we don't pay our dues
Never play me for no fool and me and you won't lose
I am forever loving
Don't get it twist, buddy
Still keep the iron by my side, it's like I'm pressing something
When you hit my line, you know slidin' and yo' protection comin'
Pullin' up in five, I'm on that vibe, you got that dick jumpin'
I know what you like, and what you love, I know what yo' languages
And I know it take more than that bag to keep relationships
We gotta bond, this ain't no cage or no permission slips
We best friends for real

Aye, lovers
Forever love
Dig up the dirt and do the work, we gettin' better for each other
Forever love
This shit so deep and I go deep whenever we get under covers
Forever love
Know you my rider and I need you like this air I breathe
I get them butterflies sometimes, feel like I'm seventeen
I wrote a poem for you, baby, and that letter reads

Our connection goes beyond the reason, we just divin' deeper
Love is like our favorite feature, life has been our teacher
Summer, winter, spring you got me fallin' like the season
Roses very red but I know diamonds keep you gleamin'
Umma
Lover boy, ain't a shame
Whether this shit get thick or thin
Always remain friends before like anything, the titles came
Love it when I'm exploring things, your body frame

Ooh, I like when she runnin'
Where you goin'?
She whispers, told me she's cumming
But where you been?
And I'm gon' follow you right after, bae, I meet you there
We was so broken but that healing let us both repair
Feel like a fairytale
