

Triggered

Ace Hood

The shit getting deep
I hit your line like 2 times
Girl, I know you're triggered
I never been with that back-and-forth
You know I'm different
You can't throw stones and hide your hands then wan' play victim
That's that contradiction

I iced up your neck and then wrist. Could you a star to me
I been on some shit. I'm not in the mood. My apologies
I just need some time because my mind just think too logically
You lead with emotions. Say some shit you know gon' bother me
You already know my policy
I hate bringing out that side of me
Type to throw the deuces 'cause a bih can't love me properly
Shawty thick like honey bee
She say that she so done with me
Yet you fuck me good
You hit my line when you need a little company
Stop playing with me
You know it

Sometimes we get toxic
We get on some bullshit
I get in my ego
That created distance
You get on your timeline
Block me from your mentions
I be on some "Fuck you!"
I'm 'a run up more digits
Oh, you free? I'm busy
Counting up blue-face Benjis
Feeling myself, no kizzy
I don't wanna talk. I'm DND
Pretty little thang wanna love on me
But I know that won't bring me peace
Speak your truth and we let that be
You feel trapped. I'm 'a set you free
Live your life. You can do your thing

Outta sight, out of mind
You missing your blessing and ran out of time
You know I'm nothing. Like none of them guys
Say I'm controlling. Need humble my pride
Get with your friends and you'er mumbling lies
Act like you haven't been crossing the line
I give you everything under the skies
