Ace Troubleshooter

Today was blase, I had my delusions of grandeur
With my head on my desk in Math
When I wiped the drool form my mouth
And I lifted my head, DAZED
Recollections of all the dreams of you I've had

Dazzling, oh so lovely

Sitting in History, outside the bounds of Interesting
My mind is forced to wander to thoughts of you
I wanna drive you home
I wanna seek and find the secrets that you know
I wanna make up for all the time I blew

You're so lovely!
