

Tempest

Ace Troubleshooter

Don't touch this
Just look and feel your way through
Can't tough this tempest just yet

The hopes and fears in the sirens sounding
Beating hearts, tears as the rain starts pounding

Comfort in stereo sirens warning
Still fighting, white lightning blinding, storming

It's not in me, but I'll recover it
It's not in me

Go run and hide as the storm comes in
It's never enough
I'll be alright and I won't let it in

Standing ground, standing with sirens waking
Firmly rooted, ever bending, never breaking

It's not in me, but I'll recover it
It's not in me

Go run and hide as the storm comes in
It's never enough
I'll be alright and I won't let it in
