

I'm a Man

Ace

Well, you might think I'm just a punk
They picked up off the street
And if you really wanted
You could jump into my seat
Well, if you think this song I sing
Is nothing but a front
It only goes to show, my friend
You're still a fool

'Cause I'm a man
Well, I'll tell you what I am
Well, I work all night, I sleep all day
If I don't deliver, then I don't get paid

Well, I've been working like a dog
And soon, I'm gonna break
And people tell me I won't get another chance to take
Well, don't you try to push too hard
As though I may be green
I know I'm only flesh and blood
And I ain't no machine

I'm a man
Well, I'll tell you what I am
Well, I work all night, I sleep all day
And if I don't deliver, then I don't get paid

I don't want nobody here
To take in no offense
I only hope that what I'm trying to say is making sense
So if there's anybody here
Left in any doubt
Get out on the road, my friend
Then you'll soon find out

Well, I'm a man
Well, I'll tell you what I am
You know I work all night, I sleep all day
And if I don't deliver, then I don't get paid, no

Don't deliver, then I don't get paid
If I don't make any, then I don't get laid (Don't get paid, no)
If I don't deliver, then I don't get paid
If I don't make any, then I don't get laid (I'm a man, yeah)
If I don't deliver, then I don't get paid
If I don't make any, then I don't get laid (Though I'm a man)
If I don't deliver, then I don't get paid
If I don't make any, then I don't get laid (I'm a man)
If I don't deliver, then I don't get paid
If I don't make any, then I don't get laid
