

Quicksand Interlude

A.CHAL

[Alejandro:] What are your top five moments?

[Woman:] I can't rank them. I can't rank them, there's so many beautiful moments.

It's like a high. You feel like a high and then a low. But then , like, you are with other people and they, like, you know... they give you your high back.

[Alejandro:] Because it's not the same high.

[Woman:] No, it's not. It's like a bandaid. It fills the void. Because even, like, in the moment it feels good, but then, the second it stops, you think of that person.
