A.CHAL

Look around
Who here now?
Who dipped out?
Who stayed down?
Pound for pound
Bide your [?]
From the ground up, ay
Turn my sound up, ay
Turn my bands up, ay
Life turned out okay
Why you feel this way?
I get too much hate
For this love I give
When it's pure like this
Never show what it is

It's getting harder to trust
It's getting harder to trust
Trust me, I
It's getting harder to trust
It's getting harder to trust
Trust me, I

It's getting harder to trust, and I know
How they get on your soul
I'm a god, I'm the earth
I'm the moon, sold your soul
I've been sliming all along
If I'm sliding then I fall
Then I pick it back up
Stand on ten, standing tall
Let me know, I'm the mode
In my zone, 'toy cabrón
Look at them in the eyes
And they already know
That my body still young
But I've been here before
Yeah I've been here before
Yeah I've been here before

It's getting harder to trust (Hard, hard)
It's getting harder to trust (Trust, trust)
It's getting harder to trust
It's getting harder to trust
Trust me, I
It's getting harder to trust
Trust me, I
It's getting harder to trust
