

Our Jungle

Acid Ghost

The vines are tangled
Through this jungle
Where shadows linger
You will crumble
The night comes into
All these hidden hills

But what lies here
You'll never guess it
What leaves this jungle
Pure resentment
And hateful lies
You shall spread it there

Got me saying like
Why go leave?
I'm what you need
Why go leave?
I'm what you need

But since you're here
And we decided
To stay right here
Since they provided
A safe space for
The uninvited lies

You burn down all our
Plants and flowers
A love once found
Has turned to sour
The jungle laughs
As we discover
Love

Got me saying like
Why go leave?
I'm what you need
Why go leave?
I'm what you need

We've been in here for way too long
We're far away from our home

Hear me cry
Hear me shout
Stitched up
My mouth
Ripped tongue
No smile
Always
Meanwhile
Overthinking
Always
Dreaming
Overthinking
Always

Dreaming
