

Autumn Afternoon

Acid House Kings

It's an autumn afternoon again
It's an autumn afternoon again

My summer feelings have gone
September makes me remember
Bicycling to the bluest sea
Where it's just you and me

Summer's always far away
Summer's always far away

Now again it's a bus to school
You are always too cool
You never listen to me
It seems as if you're forever gone
Are you sorry too
Comfort me with tears

My summer feelings have gone
September makes me remember
Bicycling to the bluest sea
Where it's just you and me

Summer's always far away
Summer's always far away

It's an autumn afternoon again
It's an autumn afternoon again
It's an autumn afternoon again
It's an autumn afternoon again
