

Thirteen Again

Acid House Kings

You are nervous as on the first day in school
But now you're up to girls
She's sweeter than honey

Let me come for you
Let me take you home
Let me show you my football magazines
I'll do anything to impress you
Anything

Thirteen again lying on the sofa
With your favourite girl in the class
Hoping for her very first I love you

I feel sorry for her and her feelings
'Cause I just want her arms around me
For a second or an hour

Is it impossible to see
That this means nothing to me
A young boy's heart seems so tender

Thirteen again lying on the sofa
With your favourite girl in the class
Hoping for her very first I love you

Tell me that I am
The sweetest boy for you
And I'll give you kisses
And they'll last forever

Thirteen again lying on the sofa
With your favourite girl
