Don't let the sunshine come pouring through
This darkness still holds the light of you
When will you see, that I've been bleeding
And nothings gonna save me
And I've been trying to learn but I can't Give what you need from me

Don't write me off, cause I'm a sinner
Don't apologize for pushing me away
I'm sick to death, of feeling left
Alone cause all I am is
Deadweight!

(Deadweight...)
(Deadweight...)

Don't believe, any thing they tell you
You put that knife into my back
This blade is thicker then you remember
And I'm still fighting to breathe

Don't write me off, cause I'm a sinner
Don't apologize for pushing me away
I'm sick to death, of feeling left
Alone cause all I am is
Deadweight

(Deadweight...)
I'm sick to death
(Deadweight...)
I'm sick to death, of feeling left
Alone cause all I am is
Deadweight

A liar a cheater, a fool and a thief
I've been cursed by the rain that been pouring on me
Spill all the hate from the tongue that you speak
How could you sit there and do this to me
A liar a cheater, a fool and a thief
I've been cursed by the rain that been pouring on me
Spill all the hate from the tongue that you speak
How could you sit there and do this to me?

Don't write me off, cause I'm a sinner
Don't apologize for pushing me away
I'm sick to death, of feeling left
Alone cause all I am is
Deadweight

(Deadweight...)
I'm sick to death
(Deadweight...)

I'm sick to death, of feeling left
Alone cause all I am is
Deadweight
