

I heard you say that things will never go your way
It's such a shame I had to pay for your mistakes
It's complicated but it never was enough and you fell apart
It's hard to tell you when you never cared at all
That pills so hard to swallow
And then you said I couldn't help you anymore
And it's over now

Tell me, do you feel alive, or are you hurting inside?
Cause I've been losing sleep at night
Come wrap your arms around me and hold on to me
(Come wrap your arms around me and) hold on to me

I heard you say that things will never go your way
And I'd be lying if I said that I'm okay
You pushed me so far out, I'm fading now
It's hard to tell you when you never cared at all
Was that pill so hard to swallow?
You said you're giving in
So I can't pick you up
So I can't pick you up

Tell me, do you feel alive, or are you hurting inside?
Cause I've been losing sleep at night
Come wrap your arms around me and hold on to me
(Come wrap your arms around me and) hold on to me

You said that things would change
So I gave you everything
I guess that I'd be better to just walk away
And your voice, it gets so loud
When you're screaming, I want out
I guess that I'd be better to just walk away

Tell me, do you feel alive, or are you hurting inside?
Cause I've been losing sleep at night
Come wrap your arms around me and
Hold on to me
Hold on to me

Tell me, do you feel alive, or are you hurting inside?
Cause I've been losing sleep at night
Come wrap your arms around me and hold on to me
(Come wrap your arms around me and) hold on to me
