

Letters

Acres

I've given up writing you letters
Stop telling me I am better off
I thought time would let me forget her
Well dear this time I've had enough
So hide with your walls and your friends
I can see I can see through them all
I'd spill my blood on the concrete
But I fear you'd feel nothing at all

This is a battle
This is a war I am forced to fight
This is a battle
I just tried to do what I thought was right
This is a battle
This is a war
This is a battle
This is a war

From here I can see the horizon
I'm pulling myself up from the depths
You don't think I see but I see you
I'm trying to reach out before I forget
You said to rise far above it
But I'm falling short falling way beneath
I'm tired and I'm truly disgusted
At such a lack of self belief

Take one last breath
And focus on the good
Take one last breath
I'll be the man I should

I know that we've been misled
But these lights will guide you home
It's not like when we first met
But I'd give you all I own

I've given up writing you letters
Stop telling me I am better off
I thought time would make me forget her
Well dear this time I've had enough
So go hide with your walls and your friends
I can see I can see through them all
For you I'd spill my blood on the concrete
But I fear you'd feel nothing at all
