

Miles Apart

Acres

And I've seen the top of the world
Take what you want, I've got nothing to give
And I'm alive and you thought I was dead
Take what you want, I've got nothing else to give

Not even my time
If it's getting too much
You'll just have to leave me behind

And I've seen the top of the world
Take what you want, I've got nothing to give
And I'm alive and you thought I was dead
Take what you want, I've got nothing else to give

Anymore
And when my feet touch the ground
That haunting sound
It must have been something I did

And I'll draw a line in the sand
Was it worth all my time?
Moments I spent
Looking out for what was right
Leave the shit we had behind
It must have been something
Something I did

And I'll draw a line in the sand
Was it worth all my time?
Moments I spent
Looking out for what was right
Leave the shit we had behind
It must have been something
Something I did

Something I did

We were miles apart and lost in time
Letting go of what it's like to really feel alive
And I can't shake off this feeling
Of no one out there
And I'm better off alone

How could you be so cold?
I won't live inside a lie

Was it worth all my time?
Looking out for you and I
It must have been something
It must have been something

Was it worth all my time?
Looking out for you and I
It must have been something
It must have been something

And I've seen the top of the world

Take what you want, I've got nothing to give
And I'm alive, and you thought I was dead
Take what you want, I've got nothing else to give

And I've seen the top of the world
It must have been something
Must have been something
And I've seen the top of the world
It must have been something
Must have have been something
