

My Everything

Acres

When it feels like the weight of the world
Gets heavier on your own
And you sit there all alone
In the hell you created

If you fall asleep
Fall into me
On our own
Be my everything
My everything
And fall into me

I get lost in the lights of your eyes
And without you I can't find
I hate that it hurts you
And I'm such a mess, make it all go away

If you fall asleep
Fall into me
On our own
Be my everything
My everything
And fall into me

I get lost in the lights of your eyes

If you fall asleep
Fall into me
On our own
Be my everything
My everything
And fall into me

If you fall asleep
Fall into me
Fall into me
Be my everything
My everything
And fall into me
